

The Impact of Johns Hopkins in Baltimore City

The Johns Hopkins Institutions

- 53,352 employees worldwide in FY 2010, including 33,618 regular and 6,050 student employees working in Baltimore – making the John Hopkins Institutions the City's largest private employer
- Purchases of goods and services (including construction) from Baltimore companies in FY 2010 – more than $387 million, directly supporting more than 2,400 jobs with these companies
- Purchases of goods and services (including construction) from minority and woman-owned businesses in FY 2010 – $179 million; nearly 15 percent of all construction spending in FY 2010 was paid to minority and women-owned businesses
- Through FY 2010, awarded contracts totaling more than $100 million to minority and women-owned firms working on construction of the New Clinical Building in East Baltimore
- Total impact of Johns Hopkins and affiliated institutions in Baltimore in FY 2010 – $3.99 billion, 49,177 jobs
- More than 20,000 students – including 2,460 who live in Baltimore
- Provided more than $25.7 million in financial aid to Baltimore students, including $2.5 million for the Baltimore Scholars program
- Value of uncompensated care provided to Baltimore residents in FY 2010 – $64.9 million
- Spending on research and related programs by Baltimore-based schools and institutes in 2010 – $1.3 billion, almost all of it financed from sources outside Maryland – the most by any U.S. university
- Payments to local government in Baltimore City – $14 million
- Johns Hopkins Hospital – rated first among U.S. hospitals by U.S. News and World Report
- Collaborating with the East Baltimore Development Inc, the City, the private sector and other partners on a comprehensive, multi-year redevelopment of East Baltimore – one of the most ambitious urban revitalization projects in the nation

Johns Hopkins facilities/operations in Baltimore City

Johns Hopkins in the community

- Value of benefits provided to the community by The Johns Hopkins Hospital and Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in FY 2010 – nearly $186 million
- Through Elderplus, a program of Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center, provides comprehensive services aimed at keeping elderly residents of 16 Baltimore ZIP codes at home
- Hours of community service work performed by Johns Hopkins students – 142,200
- Number of Baltimore City youth employed in the Johns Hopkins summer jobs program in 2010 – 275, with wages paid totaling $388,000
- Through the Live Near Your Work program, provided grants totaling $416,000 to 70 employee homebuyers in Baltimore in FY 2010
- Awarded $390,000 to Baltimore community organizations in 2010

Providing jobs and business opportunities

Number of people employed at Johns Hopkins facilities in Baltimore City, 2010^	33,618
Number of Baltimore City residents employed by Johns Hopkins, 2010^	14,585
Total wage and salary payments to Baltimore City residents, FY 2010	$ 834,710,553
Payments by Johns Hopkins to suppliers and contractors in Baltimore City, FY 2010	$ 387,636,981
Total impact of Johns Hopkins in Baltimore City, FY 2010	$ 3.99 billion
Total FTE jobs generated in Baltimore City, FY 2010^	49,177

Educating Maryland residents

Number of Baltimore City residents enrolled at Johns Hopkins, fall 2009	2,460
JHU Undergraduate	268
JHU Graduate/professional	1,966
School of Medicine	226
Number of Johns Hopkins graduates living in Baltimore City, 2010	11,279

Delivering health care

Number of inpatient discharges at JHHS hospitals, city residents	27,426
Number of outpatient visits at JHHS hospitals, city residents	454,967
Number of city patients treated at JHCP primary care centers	149,473
Number of city residents served by JH Home Health Care	9,880
Number of participants in JHHC health plans living in Baltimore City	60,995

Support to Baltimore public schools

Number of Johns Hopkins employees volunteering in Baltimore public schools in FY 2010	193
Professional development schools in Baltimore City affiliated with JHU for student teaching internships	2

- Paul Lawrence Dunbar High
- George Washington Elementary School

City facts

Population	620,961
Resident employment	246,483
Number of jobs	320,403
Median household income	$ 37,840
Unemployment rate	10.9%
Percent of residents 25 and older with at least a bachelor's degree	24.6%

Local companies with ties to Johns Hopkins

At least 25 companies with ties to Johns Hopkins in Maryland, including:

- Cangene bioPharma
- Fyodor Biotechnologies
- Philips Visicu
- Infinite Biomedical
- Smart Logic Solutions
- SurgiVision
- Vision Multimedia
- Champions Biotechnology

^ Does not include 6,050 students employed part-time